THE MURDER OF MR GOWER ROBINSON.

The following tolegram, which gives further details of this sad event, appears in the Hyogo News :--

Mr Robinson rallied on Sunday morning, but relansed in the afternoon and died at Inquest at two this afternoon, Intense feeling of of excitement here.

Mr Pors strived in Kobe yesterday, and was in a greatly excited and nervous coudition, owing to the strain he had undergone. It seems that Hetherlegton had given Robinson notice of his intention to shoot, and as Mesers Pors and Robinson were driving along the bund the officer rushed out from behind another vehicle, ran alongside the dogcart and fired past Mr Pors, who was sitting on the same side as Mr Hetherington was. Mr Pors immediately jumped out of the trap and caught hold of the assassin, but not before he had fired other ports of China in endeavouring to three shots. The Lieutenant was than bring the Home Governments to a proper arrested by the Japanese police.

> KIUKIANG-THE ANTI-FOREIGN PUBLICATIONS.

(N.-C. Daily News correspondent.) 16th February. This place will keep in line with the understanding of the situation in this country. A petition to the Marquis of Salisbury and President Harrison is being circulated and residents are enthusiastically signing it. The community is a unit on the subject and everybody agrees that the Home Governments ought to do something more than has been done. I mather from your reports of the Hankow public meeting that they are equally determined and are maximous in their requests to the Government. And I presume this opinion generally obtains all over Chins. The thousands of fereign residents in China all know the facts of the case and demand that something should be done, and yet our officials, who are appointed by the people for the people are either blind to the conditions and needs or else are indifferent. What has China suffered for her outrages? [13 she sorry? Is there any guarantee that if foreign gamboats would be withdrawn there would be no recurrence of the horrors of last spring? That the intentions of the people and men like the infamous Chon Han of Hunan have not changed, the ture and the placards of Chungking. consuls will tremble before them. Where revenge, but consider the murderers like Chou Han and others should no more go free than those who in every land pay the penalty of taking wilfully and with malico human life. And in order that those dreadful scenes may not be re-enacted and the world startled with fresh brutalities on unoffending men and gentle women, we protest, and in our protest the theusands of foreigners of all nationalities in China join, that our Home Governments must make it plain to the Chinese that any breeking out of the fever manifested in the past will bring severe and swift panishment. The following is the text of the petition to the Marquis of Salisbury: that to the President of the United States is identical with it:-· My Lord,-We, the undersigned residents of the Consular District of Rivkiang beg to bring to your Lordship's notice the fact that virulent anti-foreign and anti-Christien pamphiets and planards are being vironiated in China.

They are of the most exciting character and are intended to stir up the minds of the ignorant and superstitious multitudes property of foreigners. They plainly call

There is at present a all in the atorm, and the originators of these brutalities have won decided victories. A number of men, many of whom are entirely innocent of any complicity in the recent riots, bave been behended, while the real offenders, sepecially Uhou Han of the province of Huuan, have not only escaped free but are honoured by their Government. There is little doubt in the minds of those who live in Ohina and know passed through these trying times, but that and lives and property be in serious danger and this state of affairs will continuo indefinitely until such pressure is brought to bear upon Chine that she will four to encourage such deeds on the part of her

In view of all these facts we beg to bring the subject to your Lordship's notice and pray that some steps may be taken to prevent a recurrence of recent outrages.
